

Was home to Olive Schreiner - well known South African author - who referred to it as "The prettiest little village I have ever seen". Today Hanover hosts a variety of artists and craftspeople, several restaurants, a delightful bookshop, coffee shop and a museum. Lesser Kestrel birds glide in the dawn and dusk skies in summer time.